Charter Oak Insurance and Financial Services' Stewart Creelman Celebrates 50 Years of Service

Holyoke, MA—Charter Oak Insurance and Financial Services Co. is pleased to congratulate Stewart Creelman on his 50th anniversary with Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company (MassMutual). Charter Oak is one of the largest MassMutual agencies in the country.

Mr. Creelman began his training with the MassMutual directly out of college. He spent the first 15 years of his career working in MassMutual's Cleveland and Cincinnati agencies before moving to Longmeadow in 1974. After four years in the home office's career development department, Stew joined the Springfield agency, now headquartered in Holyoke.

Dedicated to his community, Mr. Creelman is the president of the Springfield Kiwanis and an active member of the First Church of Christ in Longmeadow. He has been deeply involved as board member and past president of the Springfield Symphony Orchestra. He also he sings bass in the SSO Chorus.

Other past leadership roles include a former presidency of the Longmeadow Field Club and a former presidency of the Cincinnati Association of Life Underwriters and of the CLU chapter there. It was in this latter role that Mr. Creelman helped to bring 911 services to Cincinnati, making it only the second city in the country to offer such technology.

Mr. Creelman remains committed to his professional development as well, having completed his requirements for the professional designation of Certified Financial Planner (CFP®) in March 2000.

Mr. Creelman lives in Longmeadow with his wife, Carol, to whom he has been married for 50 years. They have four children and six grandchildren.
